1. DESCRIPTION OF THE LAWSUIT

The plaintiffs who filed this lawsuit are: Kaleigh R. Dittus, Courtney A. Snyder, and Joanna L. Tabler (collectively referred to herein as "Plaintiffs"). Rothstein Law Firm, PA and Lichten & Liss-Riordan, P.C. represent Plaintiffs in this lawsuit. The defendants in this lawsuit are K.E.G., Inc., d/b/a Heart Breakers Gentlemen's Club; Shadow Management Company, Inc., d/b/a Platinum Plus (Columbia); Splash, Inc., d/b/a Platinum Plus (Columbia); Elephant, Inc., d/b/a Platinum Plus (Greenville); KWE Group, LLC; KWON LLC, d/b/a Platinum West, Gregory Kenwood Gaines a/k/a Ken Wood; and David A. Henson (collectively referred to herein as "Defendants"). Defendants are represented by the law firms of Jackson Lewis, PC and the Harry T. Heizer, Jr. Law Firm.

Plaintiffs are current and former exotic dancers who allege that Defendants violated the Fair Labor Standards Act by misclassifying the exotic dancers who performed at Heartbreakers, Platinum Plus Columbia, Platinum Plus Greenville, or Platinum West as independent contractors or lessees as opposed to employees and thereby failed to comply with the Act's minimum wage and overtime requirements. Plaintiffs also allege that Defendants made improper deductions from the exotic dancers' tips and wages by requiring the payment of house fees and mandatory tip outs. Plaintiffs' claim that they were entitled to minimum wage and overtime payments, if applicable, in addition to any tips or dance fees that they received directly from customers.

Defendants deny that they acted in violation of the law in any way, and allege that the exotic dancers who performed at Heartbreakers, Platinum Plus Columbia, Platinum Plus Greenville, or Platinum West were properly classified, and that their pay practices were and are lawful.

If you elect to opt-in to this lawsuit and be represented by Plaintiffs' lawyers, you will not have to pay legal fees or costs. Any such legal fees or costs would be paid from the common fund, if any, recovered by way of judgment or settlement, or Defendants could be required by the court to pay attorney's fees and costs, if the plaintiffs prevail at trial.

6. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS

The FLSA has a general statute of limitations of two years, which may be extended to three years in instances in which a willful violation of the law is established. If you choose to join this lawsuit, and a final determination is rendered that finds minimum wages or overtime pay is owed, you may be able to recover damages if you were not paid such minimum wages or overtime pay, but only for the hours worked during the applicable statute of limitations period, as determined by the court.

7. THE COURT EXPRESSES NO OPINION ON THIS LAWSUIT

The Court has not made a final determination that any Defendant failed to comply with the Fair Labor Standards Act. Whether the Defendant has failed to comply with the Fair Labor Standards Act is in dispute. There is no money currently available from this lawsuit to Plaintiffs (or to persons receiving this notice) and there is no guarantee that Plaintiffs (or the persons receiving this notice) will recover any money by joining this lawsuit.
